Cotton Farmers to Vote Saturday, March 12, On Marketing Quota

FARMERS, Have you seen a copy of the NEW FARM ACT?

This coming Saturday, March 12, a referendum vote will be held all over the cotton producing sections of the United States to determine the wishes of the producers of cotton. Below the Herald produces an explanation as sent out from the Extension Service of College Station. Read it carefully, discuss it freely, ask questions liberally, try to understand and make up your mind, and on Saturday step up to the place assigned to you and vote one way or the other. In Hamlin the voting place will be the High School Auditorium.

Read this:

The new farm act continues and strengthens the provisions of the Agricultural Conservation Program of the past two years, and at the same time provides a means of controlling the production of cotton and other major crops, according to Geo. Slaughter, Wharton, Chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

Control of cotton and other major crops is provided by marketing quotas, which in the case of cotton, will apply to the 1938 crop unless rejected by more than one-third of the cotton producers voting in the Mar. 12 referendum. If the cotton marketing quota is rejected, the conservation feature will still be in effect.

Cotton loans at the rate of 52 to 75 percent of the parity price are provided by the act, but will not be offered if the quota is rejected.

If the quota is accepted, each cotton farm will be allotted a cotton acreage from the county acreage quota. A producer's marketing quota will be the actual production of his allotted acres or the normal production of his allotted acreage, which ever is higher.

This means, Slaughter says, that a farmer who does not exceed his acreage allotment may sell without penalty all the cotton he produces, regardless of the amount.

Sales in excess of marketing quotas when the producer has knowingly planted more than his acreage allotment will be taxed at two cents a pound, with the buyer collecting the tax.

"A farmer who does not cooperate with the program if market quotas are approved will lose all agricultural conservation payments, his cotton price adjustment payment to be made on the 1937 crop, and the chance to obtain a full loan on the marketing quota for his farm," Slaughter pointed out.

ALL COTTON FARMERS URGED TO VOTE IN MARCH 12TH, REFERENDUM

"It is very important that all cotton producers take part in the March 12 referendum on the cotton marketing quota," Geo. Slaughter, Wharton, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, says.

The cotton quota plan will require a two-thirds favorable vote to be effective, or a one-third negative vote to be rejected, the state committee chairman pointed out. Therefore, the true will of the cotton farmers can be expressed only if practically all producers vote.

The referendum will be in charge

Neinda Farmer Given Government Loan To Buy Farm

This week it was revealed who had won a government loan with which to buy a farm, in Commissioners Precinct No. 1, of Jones County.

There are five renter farmers in this County to get such a wonderful break from the government. One each for the four Commissioners Precincts, and one at large. Perhaps all FIVE have been notified by this time. There were far more applications than there were farm loans to be awarded, at this time.

R. P. WILLIAMS OF NEINDA COMMUNITY IS HAPPY

One of the happiest young farmers the Herald has ever interviewed was R. P. Williams, a renter-farmer on the Mrs. Tom McGuire place near Neinda. R. P. seems not to read much and it so happened that a relative told him about the government going to allot five farms to Jones County and so why not apply.

Williams DID apply and later went through every detail of a rigid examination, set down by the government in its initial experiment of helping the renter acquire a home of his own. The first accepted man in the county seems to have been Williams. Wednesday, Mr. Williams was in Hamlin, and was receiving hearty congratulations from all who know him. We do not know just what rank R. P. Williams holds in the United States on this line of being selected as one to get the "Greatest Boost of Life" from the government. However, reports say that a man by the name of Clarence Clark in Van Zandt County was the second, and we know that Wiley J. Langley of the county committees, who will provide convenient voting places and will appoint three local farmers to handle the referendum at each balloting place. Unofficial county results may be announced as soon as votes are tabulated.

The polls will open not later than 9 A. M. and will close at 7 P. M. Each producer who grows cotton in 1937 will be entitled to cast one vote.

Printed leaflets and other information on the details of the 1938 farm program have been sent to county agricultural agents for distribution among farmers, according to Slaughter.

Every farmer will have, before March 12, an opportunity to attend a county or community meeting at which the program will be explained, he said.

The material being distributed includes "A New Farm Act," a leaflet which summarizes the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, and "Questions and Answers on the Agricultural Conservation Act of 1938 as It Applies to Cotton," which covers important points on marketing quotas, acreage allotments, penalties, payments and loans.

in Alabama was the first. Maybe R. P. Williams stands near the head of the line.

Mr. Williams did not know just what amount his loan would be, or when it would become final. But perhaps it will be around $6,000.00 or more, which will go to purchase the lands, and to make required improvements. All of this must be approved by the government, and every detail set to enable the renter to become a real home-owner in time. He gets 40 years time at 3 per cent interest. This all comes under the FSA (Farm Security Act.)

WHO IS R. P. WILLIAMS

It is interesting to review "who this lucky man is." R. P. Williams and a young wife came from Hunt County to the Neinda community, twelve years ago. He is 33 years of age and his wife is 31. They have two children, one daughter, Wanda, 9 years of age and one son, Jerry, 3 years of age. They lived three years on the Jet Milsap farm, 6 years with W. W. Shields and this is their third year with the Mrs. Tom McGuire farm. Williams is a modest little fellow, but a worker, as the investigation reveals. The officials who made the investigation came out and went into every nook and corner of their lives. They found teams, tools, poultry, hogs, cows, canned goods, well kept house, everything in order, and then about how they have kept their bills paid up, and a complete financial picture, bank rating. Finally the committee came out and told them "you have been selected provided you stand the last test" that meant the medical examination at Anson. The whole family had to take it. They were given an A-1 rating.

This is all the Herald will say on this subject this week, but this plan of governmental assistance is one of our hobbies, and really is the hobby—and had this movement been started even 10 years ago and all the money spent for farm lands for homeless farmers, that has been squandered in fake relief plans, this nation would be about 10 or 15 billion dollars better off than it is today. Let's all work for, hope and pray that farm tenancy may be checked in numbers by an ever spreading movement similar to this that Williams is getting. The government CAN NOT lose, for the farms will be better 10 or 30 years from now than at present, and all the time the family will have a nest of its OWN. This chance Williams and four other Jones County renters are getting is what several thousand such farmers need in this county or adjoining counties.

DO YOU WANT THE HERALD TO KEEP COMING

This good year 1938 has found us behind in checking up on our Herald subscription list. We only lack a few on the Hamlin-McCauley Routes and the CITY list. So if you should want the paper another year, let us know, by card, letter, waive of the hand, yell at us, just any old way to let your wishes be known. We really believe every good citizen should take the paper nearest their doors and hearts, and if you live anywhere near Hamlin, we mean the Hamlin Herald. Hand us that little old dollar renewal or maybe you are a new subscriber—you will like the Herald.

ATTENDED ANSON BANQUET

Tuesday night, Anson held their annual chamber of commerce banquet. Hamlin was represented by Ted Russell, Arlie Castle and W. E. Benson. They report a crowd of 100 and a very enjoyable time. W. A. Wilson formerly of Hamlin, but now a Secretary of a Chamber of Commerce, was chief speaker.

ELEMENTARY P. T. A. TO SELL CAKES, PIES

The Herald is requested to announce that the Elementary P. T. A. will sell some delicious cakes and pies at the Safeway Store this Saturday. The proceeds are to go to the purchase of stage furniture for the Grammar School. This is a case where one can eat his cake or pie and have something to show for it. Go get yours. Very reasonably priced.

Theo Johnson, who has been book-keeper for the Bryant-Link Co. for the past three years, has accepted a position as Assistant Secretary of the Hamlin National Farm Loan Association. He will have an office room over the bank building and will handle all the business of the organization.

A. G. Arnett returned last Saturday from Springfield, Mo., where he had spent several months with his daughter, Mrs. Witt. He went to San Angelo Wednesday of this week to visit Mrs. S. E. Riddle, his sister-in-law who is very ill.

Miss Dorothy Hines was one of the 15 highest ranking students named on the honor roll of Draughon's Business College, Abilene, for the month of February.

Chamber of Commerce Breakfast

This morning, Friday, March 11, at 7:45 A. M., every business in Hamlin is being ask to attend or to have a representative to attend a breakfast at the Morgan Hotel.

Purpose of this meeting is to launch a Program of Work for 1938, that will be commensurate with the resources and opportunities of our City. The new president, Mr. W. C. Russell is urging that you come and attend this breakfast and you will be given opportunity for expression of your thought as to the needs of our City.

W. E. BENSON, Secretary.

CO-OPERATION OF BUSINESS MEN IMPORTANT TO PROGRESS

FUTURE FARMERS WILL VISIT FAT STOCK SHOW

This morning the Chamber of Commerce is inviting each place of business to sit at the breakfast table together, to exchange ideas, while drinking coffee and crunching toast and bacon.

The more a community gets together the more likely that community will progress. At this breakfast, there should be good-will, plain talk—not criticism. Hamlin can be as good a town as her people will make it.

Mrs. G. T. Davis, of Plainview, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. T. N. Hemphill and Mrs. W. D. Bristow.

Our wall paper ready mixed paste guarantees a nice, clean wall.—Home Lumber Co.

KEEP THE HERALD COMING.

Friday afternoon, the following boys will leave Hamlin to visit the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

Billy McGough, Lee Greenway, Lewis Tidwell, Robbie Gill, William Scott, George Dean, Hillon Fields, J. E. Walton and others whose names we failed to learn.

These boys expect to learn much about fat animals, how to show them and how to feed and take care of them. This knowledge will be very helpful in stock farming.

Those who visited the Abilene show found it very profitable. Therefore, as many as possible are planning to make the trip to Fort Worth.

Starr Inzer, Gerald Morgan and Miss Meddie Mae Bynum returned Monday evening from a business trip to Dallas.

About...

It is often said that "what you do not know does not hurt" . . . and that is one of our country's many sayings that is very untrue. For example: what you KNOW that the other fellow does NOT know and the thing passes from YOU to HIM . . . both are hurt. Your conscience may have become so seared till it fails to feel and you are incapable of being hurt and the other person will suffer in some form because of your deception.

In olden times, all furniture was made in "home shops," and many kinds of hardwood have worm eaten holes in it and thus weakens the article that it goes into. So to fill up these holes and gloss over such places, bees wax was used—and the varnish completed a nice looking job. The customer would purchase such a "nice piece" of goods and later found it a fraud when a test was made on the article . . . the break came and the wax and holes appeared . . . the furniture was not "sincere." Be careful how you use the word "sincerely" which means "solid, sound, true to appearances, without blemish and really no "wax."

Some people think they save money by patronizing peddlers of this and that, selling goods that can be bought from Hamlin people—Bud don't kill the goose that keeps you up, and does your "cackling."

For many months the Herald has been using Governor Allred's "Rest of the Record," but NOW the record has ceased to be interesting enough to give it so much attention. The Governor has not measured up to what he should the past year or so, and it now appears he is seeking to stop somebody along lines he one trod. If Mr. Allred should send in something that is constructive, and not selfishness, we shall again use his letters.

Clean-up and Paint-up week has been proclaimed by Governor Allred, April 3 to 10. There is plenty to do on this line over here in Hamlin. To have a clean-up and paint-up in Hamlin four times a year would not hurt. Clean yards, streets and alleys, and a lot of paint makes the difference.

By this time next week Hamlin Girl Scouts will have a "Hut of their own." More about it will appear later.

Reliable rumors are that the Methodist people will have a new home for their pastor before June—Listen for more about this.

The Herald has soft peddled the various forms of Relief Work in Hamlin but it must come out soon for there is some nice street work going on—Listen for WPA.

The Herald has tried to read and understand the New AAA Law this week . . . guess we are strong for it whether we can understand it or not. We wonder if even a single Congressman understands it.

The Herald had a long letter from J. E. McCoy of 116 E. 62nd Street, Los Angeles, California, this week. He and his family seem to be doing fine, but maybe down in his heart he would like to walk along old Hamlin's streets and slap the boys on the back.

HAMLIN TEACHER RESIGNES TO TAKE GOVERNMENT WORK

Last Friday Miss Ann Hudson, teacher of Home Economics in Hamlin High School, terminated her connections to take work in the Farm Security Administration.

Miss Hudson will have her headquarters office in Haskell and will have five counties in her district.

The Home Economics position is now filled by Miss Fay Duncan who comes from the Pecos school. Miss Duncan is a graduate from the Denton State Teachers College.

MRS. CARRIE E. SNELL

BURIED IN WALNUT SPRINGS

Mrs. Carrie E. Snell died at 8:30 o'clock, Saturday morning, March 5, at the Hamlin Hospital. Mrs. Snell had been ill only a short time and her death came as a great shock to her relatives and friends.

Caroline Elizabeth Hunt was born June 7, 1860 in Corsicana, Texas. Later she moved to Blum, Texas, where on January 31, 1879, she was united in marriage to Robert S. Snell and soon they moved to Walnut Springs where they lived many years and reared their family.

Surviving the mother are five daughters, Mrs. S. C. Ivey, Waco, Mrs. Z. T. Wilson, Hamlin, Mrs. R. O. Gillus, Omaha, Neb., Mrs. J. B. Goodwin, Anson and Mrs. W. O. Cunningham, of Houston. All were present at the time of the death of their mother and attended the funeral which was held in the Baptist Church in Walnut Springs, of which church Mrs. Snell was a member for a number of years. Besides the five daughters Mrs. Snell is survived by four step-children, Mrs. J. T. McGregor, Mrs. G. M. Lail, Charles Snell and Ed Snell.

For the past two years Mrs. Snell had made her home in Hamlin with her daughter, Mrs. Z. T. Wilson.

HOW ABOUT HAMLIN STUDENTS AT TEXAS TECH

Lubbock, Texas, March 3, 1938.

Dear Editor:

Acting upon the request from various editors in Texas, the Alumni and Ex-Students Association is prepared to give you a general survey of the activities of students coming to Texas Tech from your locality.

Mr. Paul White, a senior in the Journalism department, married last spring. He has been an honor roll student ever since entering Texas Tech. And at the present time he is employed by the Dean of Men.

Mr. Warren Nobles, a junior in the Business Administration department, is a member of the Centaur Club. Since coming to Tech he has been employed at Stinson's Dry Cleaners.

Mr. W. L. Boyd, Jr., a junior in the Business Administration department, transferred from Baylor University this fall. Since coming to Texas Tech, W. L.'s fulgent personality has made him many friends. His grades show that he only needed a few more points to make the honor roll.

Mr. Wynell Cox, a junior in the Business Administration department, is advertising manager for the Texas Tech Magazine. He was Tech's middleweight boxing champion during 1937, has been on the honor roll ever since entering school, and is widely known on the campus.

Miss Annie Merle Ferguson, a sophomore of the Business Administration department, pledged one of the girls' clubs last week. She is a good student and we are expecting great things of her during the next two years.

The purpose of this letter is to give your readers a closer check on the progressiveness of their friends enrolled here.

Very truly yours,
Calvin Hazlewood, Sec.

WISE CHAPEL 4-H CLUB

The Wise Chapel 4-H Club girls met March 4, at the teacherage.

Miss Martin and one of our sponsors, Mrs. Jonny Agnew, met with us. Although the weather was bad our last meeting day, February 18, and we had a small attendance, we are getting along fine.

Friday we had twelve members, all of whom had the sewing of their pajamas finished, started, or ready to start except two, who will before long.

The club girls all said the club prayer, pledge, and motto, then sang, "The More We Get Together."

By the first meeting in April we are to have at least 25 baby chicks, all sewing boxes with the sewing of our pajamas completed and be able to begin the sewing of our slips.

Some of the girls are to take part on problem of next meeting day, March 18. —Reporter.

Miss Aurelia Mae Proffitt, of Midland, came over last Friday to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Proffitt. She is with the Bell Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Ward, of Menard, came up Friday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison. Mrs. Ward was Miss Laveria Harrison.

JONES CO. WOMEN TALK VEGETABLES

Seven varieties of vegetables are growing in the frame garden of Mrs. A. C. Cox, home food supply demonstrator of the Union Home Demonstration Club. These vegetables include 2 varieties of spinach, carrots, lettuce, radishes, onions and beets. The frame garden is 6 feet wide and 16 feet long and is covered with a thin grade of domestic.

Since my frame garden was a success last year, I made it larger this year, said Mrs. J. E. England, co-operator in home demonstration work in the Tuxedo community. At the present time, Mrs. J. E. England has mustard greens and onions growing in her frame garden. One by 12 inch planks were used in making the frame for the garden, and canvass placed over the top. This will protect the vegetables from the wind and sand, and from the hot sun. The canvass is thin enough so the sun's rays will pass through easily.

Curiosa Americana

By Elmo Scott Watson

Truly Representative

ONLY two Americans have ever had the distinction of representing three different states in the national congress. Neither was a native of the United States. Ireland was the homeland of both.

Matthew Lyon, born in County Wicklow in 1746, emigrated to this country in 1759, settled in Vermont and served in the Revolution. He became editor of an anti-Federalist newspaper and was elected to congress in 1797. Indicted for libel under the Alien and Sedition laws during Adams' administration, he was re-elected to congress while still in jail.

After serving his second term in Washington, he moved to Kentucky and after serving two terms in the legislature of that state, was elected to congress serving from 1803 to 1811. In 1820 he removed to Arkansas territory and was elected as its first delegate to congress. He died however on August 1, 1822, before he could go to the national capital again.

James E. Shields, born in County Tyrone in 1810, came to America in 1826 and became a lawyer in Illinois. He was commissioned brigadier-general of Illinois volunteers in 1846 and served in the Mexican war. Mustered out of the service in 1848 he was appointed territorial governor of Oregon but resigned when he was elected United States senator from Illinois. He served in the senate from 1849 to 1855 then moved to Minnesota. When the state government was organized there, he was again sent to the United States senate where he served from 1855 to 1859.

He next moved to California but returned to Washington at the outbreak of the Civil war when he was again commissioned a brigadier-general of volunteers. He resigned from the army in 1863 and returned to California but, having lost his lands granted for his military services, moved to Missouri. In 1879 he was elected to the senate from this state and held that position until his death on June 1, 1879, at Ottumwa, Iowa.

Uncommon Americans

Father of the Cattle Trails

IF IT had not been for Joseph G. McCoy, there might never have occurred that epic migration over the cattle trails from Texas to the north during the seventies and eighties. In that case the history of the Lone Star state—and the whole West, for that matter—might have been very different. McCoy, a native of Springfield, Ill., was a stockman and cattle buyer who went to the raw little frontier town of Abilene, Kan., soon after the Civil war was over.

That conflict had ruined the cattlemen in Texas. Shut off from the Northern markets by the Union control of the Mississippi river, their herds had increased enormously, but without a place to sell the animals, they were comparatively worthless. Then the Kansas Pacific railroad, which was building west, reached Abilene and McCoy had a wonderful idea.

If he could get the Texas drovers to drive their herds north across Indian territory to Abilene, grazing them on the rich prairie grass as they came, Abilene would be the market place and shipping center where Texas sellers and Chicago and Kansas City buyers could meet. Despite many obstacles, including the prevalent belief that Texas beef was not as good as that grown in the Middle West, McCoy went about the job of making his dream come true.

In July, 1867, he began raising money to build a "shipping yard," a barn and office and to begin the construction of a large, three-story frame hotel for the accommodation of Texas drovers and eastern buyers. His next task was to get word to the cattlemen more than 400 miles away to the south. Although the time was short he managed to persuade enough of them to make the experiment so that they marketed 35,000 head of cattle in Abilene that fall and received approximately $15 a head.

The next year more than 75,000 cattle were marketed there. By 1871 that number had jumped to 120,000 and by the next year to 236,000. From that time on Texas cattle poured north by the hundreds of thousands over the original cattle trail from the Red river to Abilene and other trails which were laid out. Other Kansas "cow towns" began to boom with activity as the railroad was pushed farther west and southwest and there was added to our history that thrilling chapter when the cattleman was king. And all of this was due to the vision of one man—Joseph G. McCoy, the "Father of the Cattle Trails."

Improved Dairy Practices Help Cotton States

(This is the fifteenth of a series of livestock articles published as a service to farmers and stockmen.)

Through Dairy Herd Improvement associations and official testing in Southern states, operating under the supervision of Extension Service and College dairy leaders, much is being done to build a sound dairy program in the South. Under the supervision of cow testers, accurate records of milk production and production costs are being kept by an increasing number of Southern farmers.

Building their program upon the essentials of good management, culling of inefficient animals, breeding of better animals, and proper feeding, Dairy Herd Improvement associations are making an important contribution to the dairy industry of the South.

"Not more but better cows" is the slogan used by the Dairy Herd Improvement association in a leading Southern state. Following this slogan, this organization is obtaining more efficient and more profitable results from available animals and the use of better bulls.

FEEDING IMPORTANT

Feeding plays an important part in Herd Improvement programs. Good pastures, properly used, are emphasized as the foundation stone upon which dairying must be built. Along with pastures, home-production of grains and hays is stressed, and the use of adequate, balanced rations is essential.

More efficient and economical feeding of Southern herds, today, than has ever been possible before, is possible through research and practical experience that have demonstrated the proven feeding value of leading Southern products.

Protein requirements, so important in the profitable production of milk, can be met economically and efficiently through the use of cottonseed meal. The cottonseed meal produced from Southern cottonseed provides the protein needed to balance farm grains, roughage and pastures in dairy rations, and provides it at a lower cost than it can be obtained in most leading dairy regions.

To supplement farm-grown roughage, dairymen make extensive use of cottonseed hulls, one of the most economical sources of roughage for dairy cattle.

KNOW TEXAS

SIX GROW FAST

Texas is among the six states in the union which have maintained a 20 per cent increase in population both in the period 1910 to 1920 and again between 1920 and 1930. Other states are California, Florida, Michigan, Arizona and New Jersey. California is by far the leader in the last census, having recorded a 67 per cent increase.

THE EYES WILL GET IT

Although grapefruit eaters in 43 of the 48 states tasted the Texas variety in 1937, more people in more states are due to taste it in the next few years. There are a greater number of young grapefruit trees, ranging from 3 to 12 years, in the lower products for the family diet, offer sufficient inducement, alone, for increased milk production throughout the South. In addition, production of milk and dairy products for market provides one of the most profitable, year-round sources of income open to farmers.

By combining herd improvement programs with programs to increase consumption of dairy products, both on the farm and in the towns and cities of the South, the Cotton Belt can build a strong program of dairy development that will contribute to the economic growth of the entire region.—National Cottonseed Products Association.

Rio Grande valley now than in any other producing area in the United States. This means that the biggest increase in production will probably be in Texas, since few of these trees are yet full-bearing. The bulk of trees in Florida and California are 13 or more years old.

NATIONAL FOREST LAG

Ranking first in many things, Texas slips a long way down the ladder to twenty-fourth place in national forests. There are only 614,000 acres of National Forest land in this state, as compared to more than 19,000,000 acres in California, Idaho and Alaska.

HEALTH GUARDIANS

A peck of apples a day could not keep all the Texas doctors away, because there are over 6,700 of them in the state, according to the 1936 census. At that time there were 296 hospitals, which boasted a total of 21,470 beds and 319,240 patients, not to mention about 1,500 bassinets. Since the average number of hospitals per state is about 130, Texas is well above its quota.

YOUNGSTERS AHEAD

Texans between the ages of 35 and 44 should be able to get what they want these days, if there is any truth in the "strength in numbers" policy. There are 787,000 in that age group, with the five-to-nine year class ranking second. Those under five form the next in row, with 640,000, and those from 15 to 19 years of age include almost the same number, 638,000.

TAX FIGURES

Sixteen Texas counties have a tax rate of over $1.50, the others running down the scale to $0.25, which is the rate in Roberts and Ector counties. Dallas county has the highest assessed tax valuation in the state, $273,742,923, being followed by aris, Bexar, Tarrant, Jefferson and Gregg counties, all above the hundred million mark.

C. V. Terrell, Chairman, Texas R. R. Commission Announces For Reelection

TO THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS:

In announcing my candidacy for re-election as a member of the Railroad Commission of Texas, I do so with profound appreciation of the trust reposed in me heretofore by the people of my native State.

True to my promises in the past, I have faithfully discharged the duties of an important public office; and due to intensive training and experience I have qualified myself to pass upon matters coming before the Railroad Commission—a department which constantly faces complex problems vitally affecting every citizen of our Commonwealth.

The jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission embraces the supervision of railroads, trucks, busses, express companies, dock companies, gas utilities, pipe lines and the administration of the conservation laws of this State dealing with the production of oil and gas; investments totaling more than three billion dollars.

The Commission has caused the rates on cotton to be reduced in some instances from $4.00 to $1.25 per bale, resulting in a saving to the cotton farmers and people of the State of several million dollars annually. Through its action the rates on grain are lower than otherwise would have been and the grain farmers of Texas have thereby been saved, and are being saved, in excess of two million dollars annually.

Because of the action of the Commission the rates on stocker cattle are 15 per cent lower than they would have been which saving has accrued to the cattlemen of our State.

An order of the Commission directing a reduction of the gas rates to the City of Laredo, by which the consumer will be saved more than 25 per cent was recently sustained by the Supreme Court of the United States. Since I have been a member of the Commission no order of the Commission fixing gas rates has ever been stricken down by the Courts.

The Railroad Commission's policy of oil and gas conservation has yielded to the permanent public school fund, the University of Texas and A. & M. College more than forty million dollars, the benefits of which will extend to coming generations.

Standing upon my record in these and many other achievements of the Commission, I ask with confidence my reelection to this highly responsible office; and I pledge a continuation of my best efforts for public welfare.

A faithful performance of public service in the past is the best guarantee of like service in the future.

(The above announcement was placed before the voters of this community by Mr. Terrell's friends and paid for by them.)

N. M. ACUFF DIED TUESDAY MORNING

After thirty-three years of intense suffering, death came to N. M. Acuff of this city, at his home on Central Avenue, Tuesday morning, March 8, at 7:25.

Mr. Acuff was 77 years, 5 months and 6 days of age. He was a native of Van Buren County Tennessee, born October 2, 1860. In after years he came to Arkansas, and there nearly 57 years ago he was married to Sarah Ann Buie, who has walked by his side as a faithful companion all these years and now mourns his death. To this union there were twelve children and the following are the survivors: W. V. Acuff, J. S. Acuff, N. A. Acuff, Mrs. Mae Boswell and Mrs. J. E. Carpenter all of Fort Worth. George Acuff of Oklahoma City and Mrs. W. F. Laster of Hamlin, with whom the couple had lived for the past five years. There are 13 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. One half sister and one brother also survive.

The Acuff family came from Arkansas to Tarrant County Texas in 1896, and in 1911 came to Hamlin. Mr. Acuff had been a familiar figure in the Hamlin community for these many years. For 33 years he had been afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism and could hardly get about. He spent the last 14 years in a wheel chair except the past 16 months he has been confined to his bed. Till recent years he kept actively interested in the affairs of his country and read a great deal. He did not enjoy much of the modern day, however for he seldom could ever get into a car and good roads to him were just a dream.

Mr. Acuff had been a member of the Baptist Church for 51 years.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence, Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J. Henry Littleton, in the presence of all the surviving children, and a large number of friends and neighbors.

Interment was in East Cemetery under the direction of the Maples Funeral Home.

Folks make all kinds of cracks about their home-town newspaper and dub it all sorts of names. They even go so far as to say that nobody reads it. But when they want something to be known, they use the columns of the Hamlin Herald to tell the folks the when-where-why and-how of things. That service is free—in fact, the Herald solicits such news, announcements, reports, etc. However, if you don't believe that folks read what this paper prints, just try putting something wrong in the paper and you'll find out.

WELDON CARLTON CHASES MONKEYS

The Herald has promised to relay a few of the things that Weldon Carlton tells about himself down in the South American jungles. He wrote a letter on February 22. It was post marked Feb. 24, and was sent up by airplane.

He says: "We left Maracaibo, Venezuela, and went 100 miles across the lake and then took a small train for 15 miles to the camp at the foot of the Andes Mountains, where Shell has a nice camp and about 300 wells." Weldon says "There are Americans, English and Dutch and all speak English."

He says the mountains are very pretty, but some of them he has not seen the top yet, for they extend far above the clouds. Snow can be seen on them part of the time.

He says: "Two other boys and I started out last Sunday afternoon to walk up one of the mountains a part of the way. We found some monkeys in the trees, we chased them until they ran out of the trees and had to jump down into the grass. A little one was riding on its mother's back and fell off and we caught it, then as we started down we ran across some more and we ran one down and brought two into camp, so we have two pet monkeys. . . not much pets, for they bite if we fool with them. They are really cute. I have made some pictures of them and will send one home. Would like to send one home but am afraid it would die before it got there."

"We will start to work and for a few days will use the trucks then have to go into a swamp and have to carry everything on foot, it will not be much worse, we'll just get the natives to carry everything. . . . we have about fifty in all. We could start a small war. . . we will not have to get into the water, through a freak of nature. There are small mounds about every three feet and palm trees about 75 feet high and the sun will not bother us.

"You can tell Mr. Pope that I have gotten four papers and that it takes twenty days for them to get here, and when it does get here I do really read it. . . all of us do. I am sure glad you got plenty of rain. I know you were glad to see it. Very little farming is done in this country. They raise cotton and most of it grows wild, and looks like a tree. They raise a little fruit and lots of goats. They have only a few horses and no mules. They use Burros and they are smaller than "up there." Some of the country is timbered and some of it looks like West Texas.

"It has not rained since we came here. It rains in seasons. The rainy season was just over when we got here. It will start again in about three months and rain every day. We are having our winter here now, but it is little different to the summer. We have the same things to eat here that we have in the states. Nearly all the food they give us is shipped in. We have not seen a snake yet."

* While driving, may we be courteous to men, women and children afoot.

FRED HARPER WANTS TO BE DIST. CLERK

Tuesday afternoon of this week the Herald was visited by a new face in the political field of Jones County. It was Fred Harper, of Anson, who is asking that you read his announcement for the office of District Clerk. Fred impressed us with his candid, open expressions and vigor of ability. He is a real Anson young man, who received his main education in the High School of that city. Fred Harper should make good at any job his judgment would dictate to accept, and to see an ambitious young man asking responsibilities in the governmental affairs leads us to give a hand of encouragement. Read what Fred says, and look out for his appearance —he should be a good speaker.

TO THE VOTERS OF JONES COUNTY:

After due consideration, I make this my formal announcement for the office of District Clerk, feeling that I am justified in doing so on the merits of qualification.

I was born in Anson where I have spent my life of twenty-four years. Since graduating from Anson High School I attended school at Texas Technological College at Lubbock and later was graduated from Tyler Commercial College.

During the past three years I have served at intervals as Deputy District Clerk under the present incumbent and realize the responsibilities connected with the office. Other than serving as Deputy District Clerk my business experience has been that of bookkeeping, having been engaged as bookkeeper in the wholesale oil and gasoline business in the town of Anson.

My life and my record as a man is well known in the community where I have spent my entire life and is open to investigation. It is my sincere desire that you satisfy yourself by making inquiry as to my character and my qualifications for the office to which I aspire.

It is my purpose and intent to see each and every voter possible and to make a personal appeal for your vote and influence, but I take this method to thank you in advance for any action favorable to my campaign and finally, for your vote at the polls.

Respectfully,
FRED HARPER.

THE SENIOR CLASS

The Senior class is happy to announce that March has found each of its members "play minded." Those who are not in the play are every bit as enthusiastic as those who have started that "eternal" rehearsing.

"Headed For Eden" is the name of the play which the class plans to stage with perfection April 15.

Miss Thompson as director, has selected Guy Wilson to be stage manager and Allyune Payne to be Curtin boy and Property man. The following constitute the cast: Kathryn Gardner, Bernice Shelton, Constance Teague, Lois Ellen Stell, Phyllis Gay Milsap, Virginia Sue Flowers, Ada Jane Howard, Wilma Redus, Geneva Jo Maberry, Dorothy Jane Bailey, Guy Wilson, Clifford Reynolds, Charles Prater, Thomas Williams, Tom Scarborough, and John Kent Jones.

The Seniors will let you hear and know more about "Headed For Eden" every week until its presentation.

BUSY BEES MEET WITH MRS. BEAUCHAMP

Mrs. P. H. Beauchamp was the lucky member of the "Busy Bees" Tuesday, March 8, when the club met in her home and quilted two quilts. The weather was so fickle all day, we didn't have the crowd we expected, but a very enjoyable day was spent and another one of those famous lunches was served. Really, if you "love" to quilt or "love" to eat, you should always be there.

Those present including members and visitors were: Mrs. W. L. Fletcher, Mrs. A. A. Oliver, Mrs. H. C. Harber, Mrs. Bert Fomby, Mrs. Clarence Street, Mrs. D. M. Harris, Meses. Elmer Joiner, Adolph Rainwater, Jesse Treadwell, L. J. Fletcher, W. W. Valiant, W. T. Lindsey, L. H. Treadwell, Leon McDonald, Jesse Richard Bond, Doc Lindsey, Johnny Agnew, Gaston Hattox, Miss Irma Lee Raley and Miss Beauchamp.

Mrs. Adolph Rainwater invited us to her home next time. The club agreed to change our regular meeting day from Tuesday until Wednesday, so we go to Mrs. Rainwaters Wednesday, March 23.

LOCAL MUTUAL AID ASSOCIATIONS

The large service rendered by Texas Local Mutual Aid Associations is clearly set forth in the Annual Report of the Board of Insurance Commissioners of Texas. This report for the year ending December 31, 1936, which is the latest report available at the present time, shows claims paid during 1936 of $1,630,779.57. This represents an increase of $149,636.49 over claims paid during 1935.

Local Mutual Aid Associations are shown in this report to have had on hand a combined mortuary fund of $852,759.71 on December 31, 1936, which is $184,576.68 more than the corresponding figure for 1935.

During 1936 these Companies, serving a limited territory surrounding their home offices as their name implies, increased their membership by 35,696, the total membership as of December 31, 1936 being 332,978.

The above figures speak for themselves concerning the benefits of insurance in Texas Local Mutual Aid Associations and the soundness of the Companies as a whole. They are also indisputable evidence of the confidence of the people of Texas in local mutual aid insurance and their approval of the plan whereby these companies furnish life insurance protection at a very moderate cost.

These Companies issue policies of small denominations as well as for larger amounts and usually permit payment of premiums on a monthly basis, which places insurance within the reach of all alike. Thus, through these Companies, people in very moderate financial circumstances may receive the benefits of life insurance protection for their loved ones when they might not otherwise have this opportunity. Nearness of the home office to the large majority of the policy holders make possible a more personal service and often a much more prompt payment of claims.

For several years, Texas' Insurance Laws have been greatly strengthened by more rigid supervision. This supervision caused many Local Companies to accept and operate on what is termed a "Flat Rate" basis, which forces greater need for more careful investigation of each individual risk, before policies are issued. TRADE UPTURN

Because there appears to be signs of an early and substantial pick up in industrial activity the government's principal forecasters maintain their view that improvement both in industrial activity and trade is definitely due this spring. More than $400,000,000 in soil conservation cash is starting to farmers. A total of about $700,000,000 relief expenditures will flow out during the next four months, and at the same time the Housing Act with liberal terms for prospective home builders, is beginning to show results.

NEW AAA OF 1938

In summarizing the new Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, President Roosevelt said: "By experience we have learned what must be done to assure to agriculture a fair share of an increasing national income, to provide consumers with abundant supplies of food and fiber, to stop waste of soil, and to reduce the gap between huge surpluses and disastrous shortages. The nation is now agreed that we must have greater reserves of food and feed to use in years of damaging weather and to help iron out extreme ups and downs of price."

XX

WORSE THAN WAR

Since its birth in 1776, our Nation has engaged in six major wars. These wars, in total, extended over a period of fifteen years and the number of American soldiers killed either in action or from wounds during this time, was 244,357; 441,912 traffic deaths occurred in fifteen years of peace! Our soldiers died for a purpose, but what purpose can be applied for the killing of these hundreds of thousands on our highways? Truly, our traffic slaughter is worse than war! Something must be done.

ARMY FLYING SCHOOL

The Adjutant General announced in Washington that flying cadet examinations will be given during March and April 1938, to qualify candidates for the Army's Flying School. The Army Air Corps has enough vacancies to accept every young man who can meet the requirements. All expenses to and from the flying school are paid by the government. While undergoing training, each candidate receives his clothes, food, room and $75.00 per month. Candidates for appointment as flying cadets must be unmarried male citizens of the U. S. who, at the time of application, have reached the age of 20 and have not reached their 27th birthday. A rigid physical examination is required. All candidates except those having two years of college or more are required to take a mental examination. Those accepted will be sent to the army's flying school, Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas, for the class opening July 1, 1938, or to a later course if the applicant so prefers. The following is the general scope of the educational examination given those not exempt therefrom:

United States history, English grammar, and composition, general history, geography, arithmetic, algebra, higher; geometry, plane and solid; trigonometry, plane and spherical; elementary physics.

Any young man who can meet these qualifications and desires to have his application considered, should write to my office at Washington, D. C., and request application forms.
